

- f) Pastoral care for student welfare needs including the provision of health and safety advice
- g) Insurance information detailing the Overseas Health Cover options, and
- h) Other appropriate third party information detailing useful contacts such as local attractions and services

42 The orientation programme every week prior to the commencement of each study period is compulsory for all the new OHC students. OHC orientation is a structured programme organised by the Student Services. At orientation, new students will be able to have access to

- a) An introduction to OHC's support services
- b) Campus facilities and resources
- c) The key academic and administrative staff
- d)